Non-degree status policies

Non-degree admission is designed to meet the needs of students who do not wish to pursue a degree. Students considering non-degree status should be aware of the following:

- Non-degree students may not transfer more than 30 credits from this status to any undergraduate degree-seeking program, or more than nine credits to a graduate degree-seeking program.
- Non-degree students are not eligible to receive financial aid, student employment or graduate assistantships.
- Non-degree students are not eligible to participate in student government or intercollegiate athletics.
- Non-degree students may not be eligible for Veterans benefits. Consult with your VA certifying official.
- Transcripts from previous institutions, high school, and/or results of college entrance exams may be required.
- Students interested in using non-degree credit for initial teacher certification or recertification in a new field will be admitted to the College of Education.
