From the President's Office

Dear Campus,

NMSU-A has been busy these past couple of weeks. Congratulations are extended to John Barnes, Student Services, and the many faculty and staff who participated in the 2nd annual open house for high school students. The feedback from the high schools consistently describes how impressed students are with our facilities, faculty, and staff. We all know this is a terrific place to teach and learn, and this event is a way for us to share that message.

Kudos go to the Sub-Committee on Shared Governance led by Kim Lopez-Gallagher and Wayne McGowan who have been working practically around the clock to reorganize our committee structure to align with our two new academic units. The campus will continue to weigh in on the new committee structure. If you have not already done so, please read the document carefully and provide feedback. A thoughtful and careful approach to this task will benefit our campus for years to come.

Anne Ricksecker is heading up an NMSU-A United Way campaign effort for us beginning this Friday, October 21 at 9:00 am in the Rohovec Theatre. I know she has lined up an interesting presentation with surprises and inspirational messages. I appreciate her work and encourage you to stop by and learn how our campus can help contribute to the betterment of our community through United Way.

Please have a safe Halloween and enjoy our beautiful fall weather. Stay away from mean-looking clowns.

What is General Obligation Bond C?

If approved by voters, GOB C will fund capital improvements of classrooms, labs and other learning spaces at New Mexico's universities. It will provide $27.5 million for capital outlay projects for the NMSU system; and over $131 million for aging buildings at universities and colleges across the state. The funding can NOT be used for anything other than the buildings specified in law (Senate Bill 122).

How will NMSU-A use the Bond C funds?

Out of the $27.5 million, GOB C also includes infrastructure replacement and upgrades at NMSU's community colleges: $1 million for NMSU AlamoGordo, $1 million for NMSU Carbide, $1.5 million for Doña Ana Community College and $1.5 million for NMSU Grants.

Will my property taxes go up if GO Bond C is passed?

No, you will NOT see an increase in your property taxes.

What other bonds are on the ballot that will make a difference at NMSU-A?

GO Bond B includes $3.25 million for academic libraries statewide, including those in the NMSU system. Look for the bond items on the BACK of the ballot!

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

FAFSA® Changes for 2017–18

On Sept. 14, 2015, President Obama announced significant changes to the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) process that will impact millions of students. Starting with the 2017–18 application cycle, the following changes will be put in place:

- Students will be able to submit a FAFSA® earlier. Students will be able to file a 2017–18 FAFSA as early as Oct. 1, 2016, rather than beginning on Jan. 1, 2017. The earlier submission date will be a permanent change, enabling students to complete and submit a FAFSA earlier every year. (There is NO CHANGE to the 2016–17 schedule. The FAFSA became available January 1 as in previous years.)
- Students will use earlier income information. Beginning with the 2017–18 FAFSA, students will be required to report income information from an earlier tax year. For example, on the 2017–18 FAFSA, students (and parents, as appropriate) will report their 2015 income information, rather than their 2016 income information.

NMSU-A Spotlight:

John Adams

When NMSU-A College Associate Professor of Graphic Arts John Adams walks into the Technical Education Building each day, a new stream of students suddenly appear in the hallways. John's amiable character, enthusiasm, and skill have been important elements that have attracted a dedicated following in his classes. In addition, he serves as the faculty advisor of the "Studio Media Solutions" student group. This group has had a reputation as "doers," and when one finds the building decorated with holiday garnish or student artwork, you can bet that John and his students were there making things happen.

John and his students also play an important role in designing and developing logos, pamphlets, and fliers that help the campus promote its activities. During the last five years, John and his colleagues have revamped the NMSU-A Computing AAS, helping the campus complete important goals related to its Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) Project.

John also contributes to the campus' online presence as a Quality Matters certified Master Reviewer. As an institution heavily invested in Quality Matters, NMSU-A's online offerings meet rigid standards designed to assure quality in online education.

This year John has taken it upon himself to convert feeder classes, or key classes that introduce students to his field of study to online classes. He is enthusiastic that this offering will draw more students into his program and increase enrollment and participation in Computer Graphics at NMSU-A.

Outside of being a great instructor, leader, and overall good guy, John is the happy owner of a llama! His yard, as a consequence of constant light grazing and llama-generated fertilizer, is one of the nicest in his neighborhood.

If you would like to meet John Adams and learn more about his graphic arts program, he is located in room 127 in the Technical Education Building. You can also contact him by phone at (575) 439-3675 or email at jadams@nmsu.edu.

AGGIE CUPBOARD ALAMOGORDO

Here is some "food" for thought:

Did you know Aggie Cupboard Alamogordo distributes food all year? So far in 2016, 101 food distributions have helped NMSU-A students, faculty and staff in need. This amounts to more than $1500 in food and is done only through the generous donations of food and cash by the NMSU-A and Alamogordo communities.

Each distribution includes:

- 1 can of soup
- 1 can of fruit
- 2 cans of vegetables
- 1 can of pasta/tomato sauce
- 1 can of beans
- 2 to 3 pounds of dry pasta, beans or rice
- 15 ounces of tuna/chicken or 20 to 30 ounces of peanut butter
- 3 or 4 other items that we have available

Your donations are greatly appreciated but, as you might imagine, it doesn't take long to deplete our shelves.

We are in great need of packages of dry pasta, rice and beans and canned tomato/pasta sauce and peanut butter. We can also always use canned soups, fruit, vegetables, chicken, and tuna. All items need to have a "use by" or "best by" date in the future. We also accept cash donations through the NMSU-A Foundation which can easily be made by contacting Mary Fechner at (575) 439-3696.

Please do what you can to help.

The next Aggie Cupboard Alamogordo food distribution will be at the Tays Center Kitchen located near Adult Education:

- Tuesday, October 25th from 4pm to 6pm
- Wednesday, October 26th from 4pm to 6pm

Distribution is open to any NMSU-A or NMSU student or employee who has an NMSU-A ID number. Anyone receiving food will need to complete a short information card with their name, ID number, and any food restrictions or allergies. You may also provide constructive comments to help the pantry improve.

For more information, contact Greg Hillis at (575) 439-3624.

If you have an article, story, or photo you would like to share in the Campus Connection Newsletter, please send it to Katie Pacelli-Klinger at kpacelli@nmsu.edu or call (575) 439-3729. Don't forget to Like and Follow the New Mexico State University Alamogordo Facebook Page and @NMSU on Twitter!
