Emergency Grading Option Available to Students for Spring 2020 Semester

There is a grading option now available to students during this extraordinary time. Traditional letter grading remains the same; however, there is now another option for students offered this spring 2020 semester.

- Students can opt to change from letter grades to Satisfactory(S) - Unsatisfactory(U)
  - Available through May 6, 2020
  - Contact Admissions at admisnmsua@nmsu.edu by 4:59 pm on May 6, 2020 if you wish to change to this option
  - “S” grade will fulfill prerequisite requirements
  - “U” grade does not fulfill this requirement
  - S/U grades are not calculated into student’s GPA
  - You must opt in for the S/U grading system, course by course
  - Students should contact their Instructor for guidance regarding changes to syllabus or coursework
  - Students should contact their Academic Advisor for additional guidance

- Students may also withdraw from a Single 16-Week course (with a W) by April 17, 2020

Please note that there are no refunds for withdrawals with “W”.

- This may have an impact on Financial Aid
- Contact Financial Aid at finaidnmsua@nmsu.edu before dropping any course
- Students should contact their Program or Academic Advisor for guidance
